Ten Solid Reasons for Joining the RTTC Team

Reason #9

Several employment options include full time, Co-op programs, and summer intern programs

- Full time: Enter here for a discussion of full time RTTC Job Opportunities
 - For engineering graduates, the college or university you have graduated from must be accredited by ABET (the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology).
- Co-op Programs: RTTC has had a mutually successful Co-op program for over 25 years. Enter here to apply for a Co-op position.
 - For engineering students, the college or university you are attending must be accredited by ABET (the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology).
 - Paid tuition is available to all Co-ops.
 - As a Co-op, you are in line for a full-time position upon graduation.
 - You can also determine the field you wish to pursue after graduation.
- Summer Intern Programs: RTTC is planning on initiating a summer intern program beginning in the summer of 2002.
